The Real Downton Abbey

Highclere Castle, in Hampshire is the eponymous Downton Abbey and has been home to the Earls of Carnarvon and their families since 1679, Highclere is undoubtedly one of England's most beautiful castles set amid spectacular parkland.

The current castle was largely rebuilt in the mid 19th century by Sir Charles Barry, the architect who redesigned the Houses of Parliament. The majestic Victorian gothic edifice, standing in grounds landscaped by Capability Brown, is a testament to Britain pride and self-confidence of the time.
